UNDERGRADUATE SPOTLIGHTS

Antoine Hanchard

Recent graduate Antoine Hanchard majored in civil engineering and has accepted a position with The Troyer Group in Mishawaka, Indiana. As an undergraduate, Antoine was the new member educator and head of public relations. Outside of Sigma Pi, Antoine was a member of the ASCE concrete canoe team, captain of the AISC Steel Bridge team, and past secretary of ASCE. His hobbies include video games, watching too many movies, photography, and the Middle Earth Strategy Battle Game.

Why did you join Sigma Pi?

"I joined because I wanted to work on myself and meet new people. I have always been introverted and very timid, but Sigma Pi has allowed me to become more extroverted and active. I have pushed myself harder to engage myself in other societies, on campus, and in classes. This brotherhood pushes me to strive to be the best person I can be in all aspects of my life." — Antoine Hanchard

Muaz Alfrhan

In early 2019, Brother Muaz Alfrhan worked with the charity foundation Basmat Amal (Smile of Hope) to organize a donation drive for Syrian refugees. The charity event collected $132,000 worth of items and filled three semi-trucks. In summer 2019, Muaz distributed the supplies to the Syrian refugees in Turkey.
